

WORLD LANGUAGE ACADEMY

Quality Standards for WLA Students (Grades 6-8)

As Toros, we respect ourselves.

We show respect when we commit to high quality and craftsmanship by:

- Putting our full names and the date on top right-hand side of the page,
- Turning in work that is written neatly and legibly, or typed in Times New Roman, 12-point,
- Writing in complete sentences with correct punctuation and capitalization,
- Editing and correcting work before turning it in,
- Turning work in on time,
- Asking for help when confused, and
- Using the student agenda and Canvas calendar to stay organized.

As Toros, we respect and serve others.

We respect others by:

- Giving them their personal space,
- Waiting to speak until others have completed their thoughts,
- Using the target language to respond to peers and staff members,
- Greeting others by looking at them and offering them good wishes aloud,
- Helping others in times of need,
- Paying more attention to our teachers and classmates than to our electronic devices, and
- Practicing appropriate etiquette when writing professional e-mails (greeting, message, closing statement).

We respect the school by:

- Following the Hall County dress code policy,
- Keeping school property and common areas neat and tidy,
- Walking in the school, and
- Using our inside (quiet) voices.

We respect our nation when we...

- Pause in the classroom or in the hallway during the Pledge of Allegiance and the moment of silence.
